Men Accused of Sending Fraudulent Packages to Houses of Death Are Prisoners in California.

A scheme to trade on the sorrow of those mourning the death of a friend or relative has been stopped by W. I. Madeira, Post Office Inspector, who has caused the arrest in Los Angeles of two men accused of sending cheap articles by express, C. O. D., to those known to be dead. Joseph E. Rapken and William A. Gland, the men under arrest, are accused of getting death notices from San Francisco newspapers and sending cheap fountain pens, worth not more than a few parcel:

The Wells-Fargo wagon men, says the San Francisco Call, became suspicious when they found how many C. O. D. Visitors Spend Springlike Day on being delivered in such cases, and a report was made to Harry R. Hall, Post Office Inspector in charge of the San Francisco livision.

Mr. Madeira discovered thirty-three
